

What happened at the Expert Group meeting on Wednesday 11th October 2017

The meeting was in Glasgow at the Clydesdale Bank.

At the meeting we talked about The Working Together for Parents Network that SCLD manages along with Bristol University and Learning Disability Wales.

Expert Group members shared their good ideas for learning disability week and the learning disability awards next year.

We talked about Hate Crime and our views on the Scottish Government's review of hate crime legislation. The Expert Group will give a response to the Government about what they think.
